

CLASS OF 2007 LEADERSHIP MAJORS*

Emily E. Aicklen..... Cincinnati, OH
Leadership Studies major and English minor. Emily will be working in Manhattan in the Associates Program of advertising agency Ogilvy & Mather.

Oluwatorera O. Akinola ..... Brooklyn, NY
Leadership Studies and Rhetoric & Communication Studies double major. Torera will be working as a community-training specialist for people with mental disabilities this summer. She plans to attend law school in the fall.

George B. Baird..... Boston, MA
Leadership Studies major and Philosophy minor. George will spend the summer on Nantucket Island. In the fall he plans to travel around Australia, New Zealand, and Europe, as well as Africa and China if he can fit it in! When his restless wanderings come to an end, George would like to start a career in architecture in a yet-to-be-determined location.

Rachel A. Brushett..... Silver Spring, MD
Leadership Studies major and French minor. Rachel will attend the University of Cincinnati's criminal justice Ph.D. program.

Drake V. Bushnell ..... Roanoke, VA
Leadership Studies and Economic Arts & Sciences double major. Drake will be a consultant with FactSet Research Systems in Connecticut.

Katherine F. Connelly..... Philadelphia, PA
Leadership Studies and Rhetoric & Communication Studies double major. Recipient of Burrus Fellowship for the summer of 2006, during which time she assisted in a museum accreditation review by the American Association of Museums and performed development research. Katie will spend her twelfth summer at Camp Nellie Huckins in New Hampshire, where she will direct waterfront activities for ten weeks. In September she plans to move to Boston.

Kathryn J. Connolly ..... Ponte Vedra Beach, FL
Leadership Studies and Journalism double major and Rhetoric & Communication Studies minor. Kate plans to live at home and spend the summer on the beach, after which she hopes to move to Richmond or Washington and begin her career in a yet-to-be-determined industry.

Dane J. DeCiero ..... Duanesburg, NY
Leadership Studies major and Spanish minor. Honors in Leadership Studies. Dane is in the final interviewing stage for two highly competitive teaching fellowships: Teach for America and MATCH Corps in Boston. He would like to pursue one of these options to find out if he enjoys teaching. If teaching is not his calling, Dane will likely pursue a position with a nonprofit organization in Washington.

Laura E. Dianis ..... Bow, NH
Leadership Studies major and Business Administration minor. Laura will work full time this summer as an asset manager at Property Investment Advisors, a commercial real estate firm in downtown Richmond.

---

* This list will be displayed on the Jepson website at <http://oncampus.richmond.edu/academics/leadership/students/2007.html>. If you would like to update your information, please contact cmost@richmond.edu.

Andrea L. Dupee..... Hamilton, MA
Leadership Studies major and Music minor. Mortar Board, ODK, Phi Beta Kappa. Andrea will work in a Boston-area hospital for a year and then plans to obtain a Master of Science in physician assistant studies.

Kathryn A. Farley..... Lexington, KY
Leadership studies major, and Rhetoric & Communication Studies and Women, Gender & Sexuality Studies double minor. ODK. Kathryn hopes to secure a position in Washington working for George Washington University's international MBA program. This opportunity would entail traveling internationally to support the University's recruiting efforts, as well as serving in an advisory capacity when she is in the United States. Kathryn is excited to note that GWU would also pay for graduate school.

Nicole E. Harris..... Baltimore, MD
Leadership Studies and Rhetoric & Communication Studies double major. Nicole will work as a communications specialist for CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield in Owings Mills, Maryland, while attending either the University of Maryland College Park or Loyola College as a part-time MBA student.

Allison V. Herald..... Groton, MA
Leadership Studies major and English minor. Allie plans to move to Boston to work in the wedding/event-planning field. She hopes to return to school in a few years to pursue a graduate degree in business.

Mark P. Hickman..... Roanoke, VA
Leadership Studies and Spanish double major. Mortar Board, ODK, Phi Beta Kappa. Mark has accepted a paralegal position with the law firm Hunton & Williams, where he will join the asset securitization team. He plans on remaining active in local, state, and national Democratic politics, as well as becoming involved in urban and community development for the City of Richmond.

Sarah E. Ingle..... Columbia, MD
Leadership Studies and Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing double major. Sarah plans a career in creative advertising or sports marketing. She will interview with the Richmond-based Martin Agency's MVP Group (sports marketing/event promotion). Next year she will attend graduate school at Virginia Commonwealth University's Adcenter.

Jesse O. Kedy..... Miramar Beach, FL
Business Administration with concentrations in Marketing and International Business and Leadership Studies double major. Recipient of Burrus Fellowship for the summer of 2006, during which time he assisted with the planning and development of Connect Southside, a nonprofit leadership development initiative. Jesse plans a summer road trip in Europe, after which he hopes to obtain a marketing position in New Jersey. He sees graduate school in his future, possibly an MBA. Jesse's future aspirations also include travel and working in China and India. Ultimately he hopes to end up in philanthropy.

Matthew C. Kulseth..... Independence, MN
Leadership Studies and Political Science double major. This summer Matt will live and work at his family cabin in northern Minnesota. He hopes to take the LSAT in the fall and then spend the next six months living in South Africa while working at a house used for safaris.

Ryan A. Lucky ..... Rancho Palos Verdes, CA
Leadership studies and Political Science double major. Ryan has accepted a job in Washington working for the Corporate Executive Board. He will spend most of the summer on the East Coast doing community service, but he has trips planned to Orlando and New Orleans. As for his future aspirations, to everyone's shock, Ryan no longer wishes to be president of the United States. However, he is willing to settle for a cushy job as a U.S. Senator one day.

Sara E. McGanity ..... San Antonio, TX
Leadership Studies and Spanish double major. Recipient of Burrus Fellowship for the summer of 2006, during which time she conducted research on and evaluated grant-giving practices. After graduation, Sara will get as far away from Jepson as possible while she travels with her sister in Europe. When she unfortunately has to return to real life at the end of the summer, Sara plans to live in Washington, where she hopes to work for an economic development or consulting firm. While she will miss the Jepson faculty and students immensely, Sara is devastated that she will no longer have her Y-lot parking pass when she comes back for Homecoming in the fall.

Ethan L. McWilliams ..... Fairbanks, AK
Leadership Studies and Political Science double major. Mortar Board, ODK, Phi Beta Kappa. Honors in Leadership Studies. Ethan plans to attend law school at the University of Notre Dame next year.

Kara G. Neilson ..... Sea Isle City, NJ
Psychology and Leadership Studies double major. This summer Kara will work as a group leader at Camp CHEN-A-WANDA in Pennsylvania. In September she plans to teach English in Thailand or Vietnam.

Corinne M. Nunez ..... Frederick, MD
Biology and Leadership Studies double major. Recipient of Richmond Memorial Health Foundation Fellowship to research health care issues of the underprivileged and construct a health component for the Connect Richmond website. Corinne's future plans include working in a science-related field.

Joseph C. Pahira ..... McLean, VA
Leadership Studies major. Joey has been admitted to several graduate programs in psychology. His long term goal is to become a counseling psychologist.

Guy E. Peterson ..... Seattle, WA
Leadership Studies and Political Science double major with a minor in Spanish. Recipient of Jablin Research Fellowship to research environmental policy, specifically renewable energy and conservation techniques, for U.S. Representative Jim McDermott (Washington's 7th District). Guy plans to spend time at home for a few weeks and also do some traveling before starting his job as a consultant for Booz Allen Hamilton in Washington in late July.

Meagan N. Powell ..... Richmond, VA
Leadership Studies major and Business Administration minor. Meagan's summer plans include being a June bride. She would like to work for a nonprofit organization that will allow her to help out in the community.

David M. Randolph ..... Richmond, VA
Leadership Studies major and Biology minor. David will enter medical school at Virginia Commonwealth University in the fall.

David K. Roberts .....Springfield, MO
Leadership Studies and Political Science double major and Law & the Liberal Arts minor. Phi Beta Kappa. Honors in Leadership Studies. This summer Dave will work part-time at a golf course and enroll in cooking and dance classes at a local college in Springfield, Missouri. He will return to Virginia in the fall to study law on an academic scholarship at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville.

Jessica M. Scrimale ..... Syracuse, NY
Leadership Studies and Rhetoric & Communication Studies double major and Business Administration minor. Phi Beta Kappa. Jess hopes to teach English as a second language in France for a year through a teaching assistantship program. After France she will either pursue an advanced degree in linguistics or work in higher education or consulting/public relations, most likely in New York.

Nan F. Silkunas.....North Wales, PA
Leadership Studies major. Recipient of Burrus Fellowship for nonprofit internship during the summer of 2006. Nan's internship project at Church Hill Activities and Tutoring (CHAT) involved mentoring and advising high-school-age interns in planning a summer enrichment program for elementary and middle school children. Nan currently serves as the director of communications and development for CHAT.

Stefanie L. Simon.....Branford, CT
Psychology and Leadership Studies double major. Honors in Leadership Studies. Two time recipient of Keck Student Research Fellowship, which she has used to conduct research on topics related to women in leadership situations. Stefanie plans to take time off from her academic interests next year in order to pursue her other interests as a Broadway performer. After a year in the limelight, she plans to return to the dim light of academia and obtain a graduate degree in social psychology.

Tara L. Sulzen ..... Natick, MA
Leadership Studies and Urban Practice/Policy double major. Tara plans to work for PolitiCorps, a program of The Bus Project in Portland, Oregon.

Adrienne L. Supino ..... Saugus, MA
Leadership Studies and Rhetoric & Communication Studies double major. Honors in Leadership Studies. Adrienne is hoping to work as a consultant.

Kristen M. Tilley..... Bassett, VA
Leadership Studies and Women, Gender, & Sexuality Studies double major. Kristen will be a field organizer for the John Edwards for President Campaign, New Hampshire primary, starting in early July. As for future aspirations, Kristen reports that after electing a Democrat to the presidency in 2008, she plans to enter either law school or a masters program with the aim of nothing less than changing the world!

Evan R. Zaletel..... Westlake, OH
Leadership studies major and Philosophy minor. Evan is seeking employment in Richmond or Washington and plans to pursue a career in strategic marketing and/or brand development.

Richard J. Zullo..... Belle Mead, NJ
Leadership Studies and Economic Arts & Sciences double major. Rick will spend the summer living at the beach before beginning his career in July as a consultant for Deloitte in Washington. He hopes to pursue an MBA while working at Deloitte and eventually wants to establish his own private equity firm specializing in businesses in emerging economies.

CLASS OF 2007 LEADERSHIP MINORS*

Amanda C. Addison ..... Fredericksburg, VA
Political Science and Urban Practice/Policy double major and Leadership Studies minor. After graduation, Amanda plans to spend six months doing humanitarian work in Cape Town, South Africa. She will then spend time traveling in Europe, Africa, and Southeast Asia.

Jeffrey M. Allenby..... Proctor, VT
Environmental Studies major and Leadership Studies and Urban Practice/Policy double minor. Jeff seeks employment in the field of environmental education. After a few years working in the field, he plans to attend graduate school for environmental management or geography.

Beth A. Alterman..... Mercer Island, WA
Political Science and Spanish double major and Leadership Studies and Journalism double minor. ODK. Beth plans to spend time with family in Seattle before moving to Manhattan. In July, she will begin her job as an analyst at CIBC World Markets in the investment banking division. She plans on working in the capital markets group or with mergers and acquisitions. She hopes one day to return to journalism, perhaps in broadcast media or magazine publishing.

Timothy F. Baird ..... Cohasset, MA
International Studies: World Politics/Diplomacy and Spanish double major, and Leadership Studies and History double minor. Tim will be traveling throughout the summer and then teaching in Washington next year while pursuing a master's degree in education policy.

Xavier W. Belcher ..... Richmond, VA
Biology major and Leadership Studies minor. Xavier plans to intern at the University of Richmond Office of Admissions. He will attend medical school at Virginia Commonwealth University in the fall. He aspires to become a doctor, specializing in obstetrics and gynecology.

Balu B. Chandrasekaran ..... Hyderabad, India
Economics Business major and Spanish and Leadership Studies double minor. ODK. Balu will work as an associate consultant in the Chicago office of Bain & Company, a global management consulting firm.

Elizabeth A. Clemence..... Haymarket, VA
Political Science major and Leadership Studies minor.

Rebecca K. Condon..... Scarborough, ME
International Studies: Africa major and Leadership Studies minor. Becky is planning to spend some time in Africa doing research or relief work before going to graduate school in 2008 to pursue a Master of Public Health degree in global health.

Elizabeth C. Conway ..... Gross Pointe Farms, MI
Business Administration major with a concentration in Marketing, and Leadership Studies minor. Betsy hopes to pursue a career in marketing.

---

* This list will be displayed on the Jepson website at <http://oncampus.richmond.edu/academics/leadership/students/2007.html>. If you would like to update your information, please contact cmost@richmond.edu.

Martha V. Dale ..... Engelhard, NC
Accounting major and Leadership Studies minor. Martha plans to live in Arlington and work as a consultant in accounting services outsourcing for Veris Consulting in Reston, Virginia.

Kristen J. DiGirolamo ..... Frederick, MD
Political Science major and Leadership Studies minor. Kristen has secured the position of special assistant to the director of the Joint Staff in the Virginia Department of Military Affairs. Her job responsibilities include serving as a strategic planner and legislative assistant.

Sarah E. FitzPatrick ..... Farmington, CT
Rhetoric & Communication Studies major and Leadership Studies minor. Sarah hopes to secure a job with a public relations agency working in the areas of crisis management and corporate communications.

Jonathan M. Gerst ..... Livingston, NJ
Business Administration major with a concentration in Finance and Leadership Studies minor. Jonathan will work as an analyst in the investment banking division of Lehman Brothers in New York.

Leslie R. Gleue ..... Cocoa Beach, FL
English major and Leadership Studies minor. Leslie plans to attend law school.

Jason M. Guillot ..... Baton Rouge, LA
English major and Leadership Studies minor.

Kristy M. Hartman ..... Washington, PA
Business Administration major with a concentration in Finance and Leadership Studies minor. After graduation, Kristy will work as a civil recoveries specialist at SunTrust Bank in Richmond.

Tamara M. Hetzel ..... Warrenton, VA
Business Administration major with a concentration in Marketing and Leadership Studies minor.

Daniel R. Kane ..... Westfield, NJ
Business Administration major with a concentration in Finance and Leadership Studies minor.

Mark A. McGee ..... Virginia Beach, VA
Biology major and Environmental Studies and Leadership Studies double minor.

Kristen M. Mitchell ..... Dumfries, VA
Music major with concentrations in Critical Studies and Fine Arts Management and Leadership Studies minor. ODK.

Matthew D. Riley ..... East Hampton, NY
Business Administration major with concentrations in Finance and Management, and Leadership Studies minor.

Kathryn E. Sigismund ..... Comox, British Columbia
Business Administration major with a concentration in Finance and Leadership Studies minor. Kathryn will work in commercial banking at SunTrust Bank in Richmond. Her future aspirations include owning her own business and living abroad.

Rebecca B. Taylor ..... Williamsville, NY
Sociology major and French and Leadership Studies double minor. Becca will pursue employment as a media planner in New York.

Natalie C. Vercillo..... Fayetteville, NY
Biochemistry & Molecular Biology major and Leadership Studies minor. Tally will spend time in Costa Rica and Panama this summer as a member of a medical missions team. She plans to practice medicine in the future and will attend medical school in New York State.

Mallory M. Winter.....Southampton, NY
Women, Gender & Sexuality Studies major and Latin and Leadership Studies double minor.
Mallory sees herself working in the nonprofit sector in Washington, focusing on women's issues.

