2008 FREDRIC M. JABLIN
DISSERTATION AWARD: $1000
Deadline: August 1, 2008

The Jepson School of Leadership Studies at the University of Richmond seeks submissions for the 2008 Fredric M. Jablin Dissertation Award. Submissions can be on any topic and from any discipline as long as they demonstrate substantial insights and implications for the study of leadership. In order to be eligible for the award competition, a dissertation must be completed between August 1, 2006 and August 1, 2008. This year's recipient(s) will be honored at the Tenth Annual Conference of the International Leadership Association, November 12-15, 2008, in Los Angeles where they will be asked to present their dissertation research. The recipient(s) of the award will also receive a $1000 cash prize, complimentary one year membership to the ILA, and complimentary conference registration and travel expenses to the ILA conference.

All submissions must be received by August 1, 2008. Interested parties should submit a letter of interest, a 3-5 page abstract of a substantive dissertation chapter (specifically, the chapter that best represents the author's dissertation), a brief biography, and verification of the dissertation defense date (e.g., a letter from the dissertation advisor). Candidates should e-mail submissions as attachments to jepsonaward@richmond.edu. Please do NOT send the dissertation. The award committee will contact semi-finalists by September 15, 2008 to request a full dissertation chapter.

The Jepson School of Leadership Studies is the nation's first undergraduate school of leadership studies. Made possible by a gift from Robert and Alice Jepson in 1988, the school offers a multidisciplinary course of study around the single theme of leadership. The International Leadership Association is the global network for all those who practice, study, and teach leadership. Founded in 1999, the ILA promotes a deeper understanding of leadership knowledge and practices for the greater good of individuals and communities worldwide.
