

JEPSON SCHOLARS CHECKLIST

FOR THE CLASS OF 2025

To be considered for the Jepson Scholars Program, which provides scholarships for students interested in pursuing a one-year master's program at the University of Oxford, seniors are required to do the following:

- ❑ Review list of graduate programs offered at the University of Oxford. (August/early September)
<https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/graduate/courses/courses-a-z-listing>

Please be sure to refer to the official University of Oxford website for the most up-to-date information on full-time, yearlong master's programs. Most deadlines are in November.

- ❑ Make an appointment to meet with one of the following to discuss your postgraduate study interests and the Jepson Scholars Program:
 - Dr. Kristin Bezio, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs
Schedule a meeting here: <https://qkxch-free.10to8.com>
 - Dr. Sandra Peart, Dean of the Jepson School

- ❑ Meet with Dana Kuchem, Director, Office of Scholars and Fellowships, to discuss elements of a strong University of Oxford application, including statement of purpose/research proposal, choosing your references, etc. (August/early September)

Email dkuchem@richmond.edu to schedule this mandatory meeting. Allow 6-8 weeks prior to fall Oxford application deadlines.

- ❑ Attend Jepson Scholars Program Information Session:
Tuesday, September 3
4:00-5:00 p.m.
Tyler Hanes Commons, Room 321

Speakers will include Sandra Peart, Dean of the Jepson School and President of the Jepson Scholars Foundation; Associate Dean Kristin Bezio; and Director of Scholars and Fellowships Dana Kuchem.

Important Note: Students must apply and be accepted to a master's program at the University of Oxford in order to be considered for the Jepson Scholars Program. Special thanks to Mr. Robert S. Jepson Jr., B'64, GB'75, H'87, and Mrs. Alice Andrews Jepson for their generous donation, which funds the Jepson Scholars Program. The scholarships cover room, board, tuition, and fees for students pursuing a master's degree from the University of Oxford.